

“CELEBRATING CHRISTMAS”

Luke 1:26-35, 37 NKJV

Jesus is the central figure in the biggest celebration of the year.

Christmas says I can become a child of God.

There is something unique about a parent’s love for their child.

As children of God, we are given authority by Jesus to do even greater works than He did while here on earth.

An eternal place is prepared for the people of God.

God does for us in Christ what we cannot do for ourselves.

Christmas is a celebration rooted in eternal truth.
