

12.30.18

Living a Spirit-filled life is a steep learning curve.

Our destiny is more about who we become than what we do.

God specializes in bringing order out of chaos.

It takes a lifetime to learn God's valuable lessons.

Practice doesn't make perfect; it makes permanent.

Deliverance from old habits will be short-lived if you don't change your routine.

Your identity doesn't come from pleasing critics; it comes from fulfilling your God purpose.

True renewal always starts with God.
