Pour Out Your Spirit

Jesus promised that the Spirit would be an Advocate.

The Holy Spirit's power transforms the church and empowers it to reach people.

Every Christian deserves to have the fullness of the Holy Spirit present in their life.

The thrust of the New Testament Day of Pentecost is empowerment for service.

To be Pentecostal is to live in, long for, and expect the power of God in our lives and our church services.

We are a people of relationship, not religion.

Pouring of the Spirit means we get thoroughly soaked in the presence of the Holy Spirit.
